

Mr. Toshihiro Odagiri is the Senior Planner for National Land Policy, MLIT, Japan, since April 2020. He has an extensive career including territorial/ regional development, transportation, and national resilience in both MLIT and local government in Japan. He is in charge of formulating the “Long-term spatial vision”.